Olympia F. Boyce Honored Listee in Marquis Who's Who in America

Middletown, NY— March 9, 2025 — Olympia F. Boyce, a dynamic leader in Human Resources, Leadership Development, and Women's Empowerment, has been awarded an Honored Listee in Marquis Who's Who in America! This prestigious distinction recognizes professionals who have made significant contributions to their industries, demonstrated excellence in leadership, and impacted the communities they serve.

With over 25 years of experience in human resources, coaching, and organizational leadership, Boyce has been at the forefront of transforming workplace culture, guiding corporate HR strategies, and empowering women to step into their greatness. She is the Founder & CEO of Lady O Enterprises, LLC, operating EmpowerHer Coaching & HR Consulting, a firm dedicated to building strong leadership pipelines, fostering inclusive workplace cultures, and equipping women with the confidence and strategies to thrive professionally and personally.

"This honor is a reflection of perseverance, purpose, and the impact we make along the way," said Boyce. "Leadership is not about titles—it is about the ability to inspire, influence, and elevate those around you. My journey has been shaped by challenges, resilience, and an unwavering commitment to creating spaces where people feel empowered to lead with confidence and authenticity. I am deeply honored to be recognized among distinguished professionals who are making a difference in their industries."

Boyce's passion for empowering women began in 2002 when she launched Women of Divine Excellence, an online newsletter designed to uplift, encourage, and inspire women on their journey toward purpose. This early initiative laid the foundation for her lifelong mission—to equip women with the tools, confidence, and support they need to thrive in leadership and life.

Further expanding her commitment to women's empowerment, Boyce founded Women of Orange County & Beyond, a thriving community designed to cultivate sisterhood, provide support, and create meaningful connections among women from all walks of life. Through this initiative, she fosters an environment where women can build authentic relationships, empower one another, and elevate their personal and professional journeys.

As a Certified HR Professional and Leadership Coach, Boyce has spearheaded strategic HR initiatives, transforming organizational structures, and coaching professionals toward career success. In addition to her extensive HR expertise, she is also the creator of Confidence Unleashed, a signature coaching program designed to help women own their voice, embrace their power, and elevate their professional impact. She also hosts the Coming Out of the Dark Podcast, where she shares stories of transformation, faith, and leadership.

A graduate of Regent University in Human Resources Management, Boyce is a lifelong advocate for leadership development, faith-driven empowerment, and corporate transformation. Through EmpowerHer Coaching & HR Consulting, she continues to partner with organizations and professionals to redefine leadership, strengthen company culture, and drive strategic business success.

“This moment is not just about me—it is about the countless individuals I have had the privilege to mentor, coach, and lead,” Boyce stated. “I hope that this recognition inspires others to step boldly into their purpose, knowing that their impact matters.”
